

Planning Bd may have Twelve Articles

The Wilmington Planning Board may have a dozen articles, for the coming Town Meeting on July 31st.

Mentioned only briefly, at the close of the meeting held Tuesday evening, the board had not yet decided whether or not to submit the articles at this time.

The main event of Tuesday's meeting was what did not happen.

Chairman Danny Gillis did not read his long awaited report on the drainage in the Kenwood Avenue area of Wilmington, and the nine residents of that area who were attending the meeting went home with out the answers that they may possibly have got.

Gillis had started a report, but stopped in the beginning when Jack Quinn of Woburn Street said in effect that there had been a 'goof' at the time the water mains were laid on Kenwood Road, and as a consequence the drains in that road were not in the right level.

The road, he said, was as a consequence, a dam, which had he said, caused his cellar to be flooded, on Memorial Day.

Quinn indicated that he may be considering legal action, as a result.

Chairman Gillis, when he heard that Quinn is an engineer, and heard the statements that had been made, told his fellow board members that it was up to the Town Engineer to determine whether or not the conditions were as stated by Mr Quinn, and the board voted unanimously to table any action until a report had been had from the Town Engineer.

His main point seemed to be that the Kenwood Avenue water mains and drains had not been laid in accord with the plans of over half a dozen years ago.

Quinn said that it was 'essentially too late' to rectify the conditions he had observed, unless the abutters were willing to have their back yards dug up, or unless the developer were to tear up the street - a job that would cost enough money to put him in bankruptcy.

Speaking of the drains which, it has been proposed to have laid in back of homes on Redwood Ave., and which the developer has refused to consider, Quinn said that the costs would be too great, from an engineering viewpoint.

Gillis told Quinn that he had never before heard that he had signed something that was not correct, and Quinn corrected him, saying

A NEWLY DISCOVERED PICTURE: of the funeral of Mrs Dr. France Hiller, on May 23, 1900. It was found by Raymond McNamara, Wilmington tire dealer, in his Middlesex Avenue barn, and this is possibly the first time it was ever published.

A few of the thousands of people who tried to get into St. Thomas Church can be seen in the background. Mrs Hiller was the famous 'Casket Woman' whose life had been reported in the papers of the world for the past fifteen years.

The store at right is the one run by Jimmy Kelley, for many years Town Clerk of Wilmington. The back part still exists as part of the First Baptist parsonage. Further on, almost completely hidden by the street car is an old house, since torn down, once occupied by Fred Lowell, printer.

Beyond the old church the home of Mrs Gaius Harmon, the Nichols Funeral Home and the Congregational Church parsonage may be recognized. In the foreground the two men at left are hiding the old Town Pump, which stood at the head of the Common for many years. Beneath it is the old watering trough that many oldsters of Wilmington may remember.

THE MOST UNSELFISH PRESIDENT: Wilmington Rotary ever had, was the comment made by John Ella, about his predecessor, when Ella was inducted as president of Rotary yesterday. He is shown handing a plaque to past president Bill (Frazer) Butt.

MacDonald and York are Reading Bank Corporators

Bruce MacDonald of Chestnut Street, and Raymond A York of Shawsheen have been named Corporators of the Reading Savings Bank, at a recent meeting of the bank.

Mr MacDonald is an accountant for New England Power Co., and is chairman of the Wilmington Finance Committee.

Mr York is the owner and operator of the Currier Express, of Wilmington.

At the same meeting Nelson S. Burbank and Frederick S Stevenson of Reading were elected Trustees of the bank, and William Ryer Jr. of North Reading and Richard Williams of Reading were elected corporators.

Music Drama Workshop Planned

A Music Drama Workshop and Laboratory may be part of the curriculum for the public schools, starting next fall.

The School Committee discussed this and other Music Department plans for the coming year with Domenic De Grazia, music director, and Miss Lorraine Kalil, supervisor, at their meeting last Thursday evening.

The department also hopes to meet more frequently with the elementary classes, and do more intensive work with the Marching Band. On Richard Keane's suggestion, beginning instruction in stringed instruments will also be considered.

Discussion of the department report was terminated by a motion that the Committee direct the Music Department to proceed with the program it presented. This motion was passed unanimously, as was a second motion offering the Committee's compliments to the chorus for its performance at graduation.

The superintendent's report from the Permanent Building Committee stated that the plans for the Shawsheen Avenue School are in progress and should be back to the School Committee and the PBC for further study soon. A special Town Meeting will be called in September to present the plans for the new school to the voters for approval.

Steps are being taken to acquire a thirty-one acre site in the immediate vicinity. This land would be at the Town's disposal should it be found that an intermediate school is also needed in that area.

Over the summer a study of the needs of the high school will also be in process. This report should be in by November or December at which time the School Committee and the PBC will decide which direction to take, an extension of the present facility, or a new building.

The PBC has also signed a contract to start repairs at the North Intermediate School. A special meeting was called with the Finance Committee to authorize this work immediately, so that the school will have a watertight roof and be ready for classes in September, Shea told the School Board.

The Wilmington High School Boosters Association request regarding the installation of a scoreboard on the high school field, which has been under discussion for several weeks, was voted upon after Diane Imbimbo reported on the Booster meetings she had attended.

The Boosters have acquired the scoreboard from the Pepsi-Cola Company, and the Wilmington High School Class of 1966 has donated $400 toward a total installation cost of $800.

The Committee vote was unanimous, to accept the gift, and grant permission to the Association to supply and erect the scoreboard.

David MacEachern awarded two week study at AMA Camp

DAVID MacEACHERN (right) with Archie Hall, of the Crystal Diamond Salt Company.

David MacEachern, son of Mr Mrs Paul MacEachern of Kendall Street leaves Boston Airport Sunday evening, to participate in a two-week study program at Camp Enterprise, near Hamilton, NY.

Camp Enterprise is operated by the Presidents Association, and sponsored by the American Management Association. It is a summer program for college and high school men, in which outstanding leaders in business, labor and education devote full time to helping students gain a true perspective on the world of Management.

Only 35 young men, from all over the country, will take part in the two week program.

The list of discussion leaders is impressive. It is headed by the president of the American Management Association, Lawrence A. Appleby and includes such names as: Stewart M. Blankenhorn, Product Manager of SKF Industries, Maurice Cohen, president of Lechmere Sales; James J. Cribben of St. John's University; Arcey Degni, president of the Building Trades Council; Alan M. Dix, Group Vice President of Volkswagen of America, Inc.; and Don G. Mitchell, Chairman of the Board of General

Time Corporation.

The Diamond Crystal Salt Company is paying for David's two weeks - an expense of over $500. It is one of two such scholarships that Diamond Crystal is giving this summer, the other being to the son of the manager of the Akron Ohio plant of Diamond Crystal.

David's mother is a Diamond Crystal Salt Company employee.

TWO COMPLETE ACTIVE DUTY

Seaman Recruits Dana C. Atkinson and Richard J. MacDonald have completed two weeks of active duty at Great Lakes, Ill.

Atkinson is the son of Mr and Mrs Dexter H. Atkinson of 164 Shaw sheen Ave., and MacDonald is the son of Mr and Mrs Daniel E. MacDonald of 281 Burlington Ave.

LINDA GALLAGHER GRADUATES

Miss Linda J. Gallagher, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Joseph W. Gallagher of 34 Main Street has graduated from the Emery School in Boston. She received her progress report at a banquet held at the Hotel Bradford.

PLANNING BOARD (From Fr. Page)

that he had not said that, but had said that the work was not in accord with the original proposal. Gillis, before the Kenwood Ave. group left to go home told them that the Planning Board 'had no jurisdiction over flooded cellars - only street drainage'.

Later in the evening, when Town Engineer Harding was present he was instructed to determine the levels of the drains, and otherwise ascertain the truth of the statements made by Quinn.

Other Business

The board received from Atty. Charles Shea of Burlington an article for the coming special town meeting, which would have the Carbone property (formerly the Pike Farm) on Lowell Street rezoned to Industrial.

They discussed the possibility of having rezoning articles for the Webber and Yentile land, adjoining, and now zoned for General Business. The board was considering rezoning to Industrial, but decided to wait.

William Stickney, who has the duty of attending hearings of the Board of Appeals told the board that he does not get the news of the coming appeals in time to give the cases proper consideration. TM Morris was present, and the discussion which followed seemed to indicate that Mr Stickney would be notified along with the abutments, whom, the law says, must be notified by certified mail.

Do you get the feeling you might be allergic to light, just because you're inclined to sneeze whenever you walk into the bright sunlight? Well, you're not alone. About twenty per cent of American men and fifteen per cent of our women have this same, strange reaction to bright light.

No, of course, it's no more serious than having to sneeze when you're in a dust-filled room. And it's basically the same kind of reaction, too... a simple reflex. But heredity, and not weak eyes or some mysterious allergy, probably makes you sneeze in sunlight.

What's that? Oh, Gesundheit!

Selectmen's Meeting

The Board of Selectmen, Monday night, issued a call for a Special Town Meeting, to be held on July 31st at the High School.

Chairman Jim Miceli, who arrived late, requested it, for the purpose, he said, of taking land for the new Town Library.

The other selectmen were in accord, and the time for the closing of the warrant was set at 4:30 pm on the fifth of July. All warrant articles must be in by that time.

Paul Niles substituted for the chairman until his arrival, and the big issue before the Selectmen in that time was a police dog - the famous Zip.

Zip's master, Officer Jay Palmer, had been on vacation, on a trip to Expo 67. He couldn't take Zip to Canada. Zip, as a consequence had to stay in the 'dog-pen' at the Police Station.

Only Officer Langone, the other police officer who is a police-dog trainer is equipped to handle Zip. The rest of the police department have just as much respect for Zip as has some of the youngsters of Wilmington who have been flushed out of swamps, or from beneath autos at the command of Palmer.

Nobody could handle Zip other than Langone, who, of course, was not able to stay at the police station 24 hours a day.

Zip was lonely, and he let the world know in the only way possible He barked.

And the neighbors complained to the Board of Selectmen.

Telephone calls to the selectmen had been at all hours of the day, and the conversation in the meeting lingered awhile over one call that had been made at 2:30 am.

The consensus was that perhaps Zip should be given a pill, to quiet him, and then taken to North Reading, where he could be boarded until Jay Palmer returned.

(But Zip never had that indignity put upon him. Jay Palmer has returned from Canada, and Zip is home with him.)

A Daniel Gillis, Chairman of the Planning Board was scheduled to report on the plans for Redwood Terrace. Gillis told the Selectmen that he would prefer to wait until after he had discussed the plan with the Planning Board, as at the moment it was only his thoughts.

Miceli made it clear that he wanted a report by July 10th - the night of the next Selectmen's meeting.

A report from Chief of Police Paul J. Lynch said that there had been a survey for school traffic signs at the high school, by an Arthur Cudmore, and the price for the installation of lights which would have State approval was $2600.

Niles told the Selectmen that the town was long due for some of these traffic lights, and that there was a possibility of getting a better price if more than one unit was installed. A reference was made to the Finance Committee, and Mr Cudmore was invited to attend the July 10th meeting, to discuss the project.

There was a memo from the Town Counsel, saying that the Selectmen could make a transfer from reserve funds when there was no Finance Committee.

Boylan said that, in spite of this, he wished that the selectmen be notified, since the chairman of the Finance Committee, Mr. MacDonald had stated that he liked to know these things before they appeared in the papers, and he felt that the Selectmen could expect the same thing.

In fact, Boylen said, there was a transfer of funds last week, for the North Intermediate School, and he had read it in a newspaper. Miceli explained that the TM had called him, and that in the future Mr MacDonald had said they, the Selectmen, would be notified.

There was a letter from the state Department of Public Works about speed zones which are to be posted, and that their survey had shown that 95% of the traffic was going at the speed indicated, or slower. The traffic engineers, the letter had said, had viewed these speeds as proper.

Niles still questioned the limits. Miceli said that because a car had been going at 35 mph and had sheared off a telephone pole at Middlesex Avenue and Concord Street, this might be true. Niles suggested that the Selectmen contact the Representatives, and have them set up a meeting.

Fire Protection

The New England Insurance Rating Association will conduct a Fire Protection Study in Wilmington for the next several weeks, in response to a request made by the selectmen last Nov. 29th, the Selectmen were told. The survey will also involve the cooperation of the Water Department and the Building Inspector, and copies will be given of the report, to the Selectmen.

Taxi License

Anthony Antonowich of Burt Road appeared before the board requesting that the license of the North Wilmington Cab be transferred from its present owner, Aristide (Rusty) Brabant to him.

Niles brought up the question of ownership of a taxi by an 18 year old. It was referred to the Police Chief and the Town Counsel. A report is to be ready for the next meeting on July 10.

Chairman Miceli put himself out to commend Antonowich personally for making an effort to run the business, since he was the sole support of his family, his father having died a month ago.

Baby Beach

An order for a Land Taking at Baby Beach, Silver Lake, was received from Town Counsel, and was referred to TM Morris for an appraisal, and arrangements on paying of land damages. Miceli thought the Town Counsel should be commended for his fast work.

Voting Machine Study

A committee to study Voting Machines was named. Charles Black nominated former TM Harold Melzar, and others named to the committee were Stanley Webber, Lawrence Alibrand, Roland Wood and Robert Jennings.

Dublin Avenue

Mr McEvoy of Dublin Avenue appeared before the Selectmen to complain of a business being conducted down there. Chief of Police Paul Lynch told the Selectmen that he could not say that a business was being conducted there now, and he advised that Mr McEvoy should take the nuisance to court.

However, as a temporary expedient, Miceli suggested that it be referred to the Building Inspector.

Middlesex Avenue

There was a considerable discussion of the traffic conditions at the corner of Middlesex Avenue and Federal Street. It started after Chief Lynch had complimented the TM on the fast action in installing a new street light at that corner.

Charles Black commented on a letter from Dr Pyne, complaining about a stone wall that had been restored, and that it had been answered by the Supt. of Streets, and that the wall was in its original condition. The TM is to check to see if there are additional damages.

Miceli reported that Joseph Ring who lives next to Dr. Pyne, had made several suggestions, viz that a curve sign should be erected at a point near the property of Rose Babine, that there be a land taking to straighten out the curve, and if these could not be accomplished that a flashing light be put back at the intersection of Federal St. and Middlesex Avenue.

Niles said that some thought should be given to changing the grade at Middlesex Ave.

Nosey Nancy

Send your announcements to Nancy, Box 208 Wilmington, or call 657-7141, or 658-4865 after five. If I'm not there, I'll call you.

Beverly Moller of 11 Redwood Terrace wants to thank all of her kind neighbors. It seems that Bev fainted a couple of weeks ago and knocked herself out on the furniture. Her mother-in-law was there with the children, the oldest of whom is five. Mother didn't quite know what to do, so the five year old told her to get ahold of the neighbor next door, which she did. That family came over, and then the ones on the other side; they succeeded in getting Bev to a hospital. She had to stay in the hospital a week (She is an MS victim) and when she tried to thank her neighbors, they told her 'Bev, that's what neighbors are for!' It's great to hear of neighbors like this - and there are many more in Wilmington.

It seems that the old gal didn't understand completely how the contract for the yearbooks was taken. Diana Imbimbo called and clarified things for us. It seems that the 1966 yearbooks were in on the first of April, but people forgot to tell me that. And also, this year's book was what they call a 'latebook' contract, meaning it wasn't due until the fall of the year. In that way, the kids can get all they want to in about their activities and pictures, and get a cheaper price for doing it.

Hear that we have a little real talent in the school department. A little bird told me that Mr De Grazia wrote a song which was mentioned in the 'Hubub' column of the Boston Herald, I believe, and that Arthur Fiedler played it at the Pops. Also, our Mr O'Rourke who is a member of the reading department staff had a book published this spring. The name of it is 'A Little Bit of Sand', published by the Vantage Press, and it is to go on sale next week.

Stella Allen writes that she and Louise Pearson and Ethel Hardy are all patients in the New England Memorial Hospital in Stoneham. Cards to all these gals. . . May your recoveries be quick and complete.

When her mother asked her about beaux, she stated that she couldn't find one that was interested in deep sea fishing. . . So if there's a tall dark handsome young man in his early twenties that likes deep sea fishing, you might have yourself a gal.

TWENTY FIFTH ANNIVERSARY: Mr and Mrs Hayward W Adams of 3 Arlene Avenue had a quiet 'At Home' Sunday, in recognition of their Silver Anniversary.

The couple were married in Medford twenty five years ago, and have three children and one grandchild.

Beth Holbrook is Bride

In a Saturday afternoon ceremony, on June 17th., in the Wilmington Methodist Church, Miss Beth Holbrook, daughter of Mr and Mrs David A Holbrook of 45 Church Street became the bride of R. David Hamilton, son of Mr and Mrs James Edward Hamilton of 66 Riverdale Park, Bradford.

The church was decorated with roses, daisies and gladioli, and the bride was given in marriage by her father. The Rev. Willis P Miller united the couple in marriage.

The bride's gown was of taffeta and lace, with full length sleeves and a fitted waist, a full skirt, and a long train. Her finger tip veil of illusion was held by a crown and she carried a full bouquet of roses.

Miss Louise A Holbrook, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. Her gown was of pink chiffon over taffeta, with pink chiffon shoulder trains.

The best man was Mr James Hamilton, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Mr John Falon a friend of the groom, and Mr Rufus Hastings, an uncle of the groom.

A reception was held in the Friendship Hall of the Methodist Church after the ceremony. Miss Susan Holbrook, a sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

For her gown in the reception line the bride's mother chose a baby blue A-Line dress, and wore an orchid corsage. The groom's mother was in a pink dress, with an orchid corsage.

The wedding trip was to New York State and Niagara Falls. The bride left in a pink A-Line dress, with petal collar, and white shoes and accessories.

The newly married couple plan to make their home in Haverhill. Mrs Hamilton is a 1967 graduate of Wilmington High School. Her husband is a 1965 graduate of Haverhill High School. He has attended Merrimac College, and is a Manager Trainee for the Friendly Ice Cream Shops.

FROM THE BOX SEAT

Boner of the year, the sale of Dennis Bennett to the Mets. Since when can the Sox afford to part with a lefty who has a sub-four E.R.A. and good control? Williams took a burn when Bennett couldn't throw complete games in Fenway Park. Name a lefty besides Parnell in the past 20 years who could. Check Whitey Ford's record at Yankee Park; it's terrible.

Bennett is a cunning spot pitcher who could be used to advantage on the road. If his clowning and night life were the reasons for his dismissal, then be advised, Dick Williams, that such great teams as the Gas House Gang and the Bronx Bombers were famous for their dedication on the field and their shenanigans off it.

This sale may not be as ruinous as the one the Sox made of another lefty pitcher to another New York team nearly forty years ago, but just remember what that corousing fun-loving, big kid did for the Yankees.

The secret of longevity in the majors in the managerial capacity is the ability to get along with the likes of Dennis Bennett and Babe Ruth.

UNRESERVED

Recently retired John McCormack (Broncos0 of Belmont could easily improve the Patriots punting situation. He had a better average than Yewic as a booter for the Minnesota Vikings and is also a better backup passer than Tommy.

Avco came up with 17 runs in the first inning against Bournival and then hung on to win 20-17 to maintain their fourth place standing in the Lowell Softball League.

The arc-ball tournament begins Friday night at St. Louis Field in Lowell. Wilmington will be represented by Dan Bemis' Rocco's

"Good evening ladies and gentlemen, and welcome aboard TWA 678, New York to Los Angeles. You are now at 21,000 feet, on the first fully automated passenger flight in history.

There is no pilot, no co-pilot, no stewardess. You are being controlled from New York, in a few minutes you will be turned over to O'Hare airport in Chicago, and then later to Los Angeles.

team, and possibly two other teams Valley News, paced by Bob Weatherbee, Wayne Barchard and Frank Munroe, topped the K of C 10-7 last week in softball action. Then after disposing of Sweetheart easily, the Legion team gave the Rats a run for their money. Centerfielder Dick McKenna spiked a sixth inning single to chase home the go-ahead run in the 6-5, come-from-behind win for Charles River.

The Red Sox three 200 pound-plus catchers are now out-homer-ing the pitching staff 3-2.

For Heaven's sake, don't miss the World Championship wrestling match at the Garden Saturday nite. Gorilla Monsoon takes on Bruno Sammartino, or is it Gorilla Sammartino versus Bruno Monsoon? Well, anyway, it's sure to be a bloodbath!

Ron Topping displayed pinpoint control in pitching his Wildcat team to a 5-1 pony league triumph over Allied Paint last Saturday. The Mavericks drew a bye.

Boys between the ages of nine and thirteen desirous of playing may register for Pop Warner football at the Little League concession stand at Rotary Park. Two teams will represent Wilmington this year, with tryouts to be conducted later on this summer. Which ducted later on in the summer?

Which team is first in the American League in fielding? Which team is last in fielding? The Red Sox and the Red Sox.

The Patriots will be the last team in pro football to report to summer practice again this year. The veterans show up July 24, giving them a solid two weeks to prepare for the Baltimore Colts. I guess Mike still isn't concerned about exhibition victories.

If strongman Don Bragg were in his prime right now, he'd probably be shooting for a nineteen foot pole vault with that glass sling-shot they use.

That Denver - Miami deal will be a steal for the Broncos if Saban can get Cookie and Faison to put out.

TRADESMEN LEAD LEAGUE

A tie and four straight wins in the past week vaulted the Wilmington Tradesmen into first place in the Carling Baseball League. The climax came Tuesday night when the 'farmers', as the Hosmer Chiefs like to call the Wilmington team, visited Medford and beat the 'city slickers' 2-1. Jim Melzar and Lynn Billings each had two hits Melzar led off the second inning with a single, stole second, and scored on Tom Whalen's double. Billings promptly singled up the middle to score Whalen with what proved to be the winning run. Jeff Williamson allowed one hit, an opposite field double, and fanned twelve in recording his fifth win of the year.

In other action, Kevin Field held the Typos to a 2-2 tie and could have had a 2-1 victory except for an inflied error.

Jimmy Gillis knocked in the winning run in the fifth inning in a 2-1 comeback decision over N. Cambridge.

John Emery had four hits in a 5-1 Sunday win at Wakefield as Methuen's Joe Buglione won his third straight game. Tom Payne knocked in the winning runs with a booming triple in the sixth inning of that contest.

Newcomer Bob Poole, a pitcher who commutes from Ashland, shut out Lexington, 3-0, on Monday night, in his first start. Mike Farrell's two bagger with the bases loaded in the first inning gave Bob all the welcome he needed.

NOTES

John Emery is the team batting leader with a .361. Wilmington's pitching staff is the best ever assembled in the league. They have allowed 19 earned runs in 16 games. Our boys have won six out of seven one run decisions, the mark of a champion.

emissary, and extended an invitation to the Town Manager, for attendance at their Charter Night, Friday at 8 pm.

Selectman Black said that the false alarms were bothering him, and he suggested that the town offer a reward for information on these, and that a transfer should be made for such a reward.

Niles said he had been checking with the Fire Chief, and that the Chief had said that it was three or four years since a real alarm had been rung in by a street box. The business was turned over to the TM.

Niles suggested, backed by Boylen, than an investigation be made to see if funds could be obtained from the Department of Natural Resources for 'matching funds' for the procurement of more lake frontage. Again the idea was referred to the TM.

A letter from Arnold Kline of the Wilmington Shoe Discount was read, offering to buy an adjacent parcel of land. The Selectmen agreed that the town might want to sell if (1) The town owned it, and (2) it was a non-conforming parcel. The TM was told to investigate and report back to the July 10 meeting.

Fred Arsenault of Del Drive appeared to remind the board that they had agreed to a request that Patricia Circle be graded. The abutters, he said, had agreed to it. This was also turned over to the TM.

Walter McNamara of Kenwood Avenue spoke up to say that something was wrong with the traffic light at Woburn and Lowell Sts. The visibility was poor.

TM Morris stated that a study was being made now, with Avco and the town participating.

Paul Niles was adamant that this should never be done - that Avco was a private citizen as far as the town was concerned.

Morris said that they were interested, and Niles was again adamant, saying that the town would make the study, and that Avco could participate, but the instigation was the town's.

BUT IT'S STILL A LOT OF FUN: These youngsters don't know it, but daddy broke the law when he put the bathing pool in the back yard. He didn't get a permit from the Building Inspector; he located it within 20 feet of the back lot line; and he doesn't have a six foot fence around the pool. Every pool has to have a permit, the Building Inspector says. Climbing the ladder, enjoying her daddy's crime (?) is Donna Kauffman of 19 Lincoln Street. Her cousin Russell is sliding down into the pool, and her brother Ronald has just landed in the forbidden waters.
